AGENDA	DISCUSSION	DECISION - REFERRAL
Patient Education Vendor
Atlantic Health has their contract expiring for their Patient Education vendor and is asking for recommendations from the group on a platform.	No one had any recommendations	Wendy and Kathleen will send out a question via Brian for the group to give members an opportunity to inquire what systems their facility is using and feedback
New Designations/Submissions/Site Visits

DDCT Issues Concerns
Sebin had a question about adding a column to the leader table as his organization had an extra layer and the downloaded table could not be edited	Suggestion was to inquire with senior analyst Victoria Wooden	Victoria will be retiring in August 2020 and a notice will be going out from ANCC as to the new assigned analyst for your facility.
Virtual Site visits
The virtual site visit brings complexity to the site visit	Identifying meeting participants is not as easy as in person due to masks and not always visible name badges. Often difficult to hear people throughout the room. This requires more resources at least 3 IT professionals for each site dedicated to the visit.	Recommendation for the use of a microphone. Appraisers can use headsets which help. Beverly states her site in Lower Manhattan has been doing test runs to prep in order to make sure camera is able to zoom, people are looking in the proper direction, and
